IN DEVELOPMENT

I-75 at Fruitville, a Rays ballpark plan and a 743-acre Wellen Park expansion vote.

SOCIAL MINUTE

MARKET UPDATE

September showed a split market. Single-family prices rose in Sarasota (+7.8%), Pinellas (+9.4%) and Manatee (+3.2%) and dipped slightly in Hillsborough (−1.3%). Sales fell year over year everywhere except Sarasota, and homes went under contract faster than a year ago in three of the four counties.

THE RUNDOWN

Sept. 2026 single-family medians: Sarasota $485,000 · Manatee $485,000 · Pinellas $465,000 · Hillsborough $419,450.

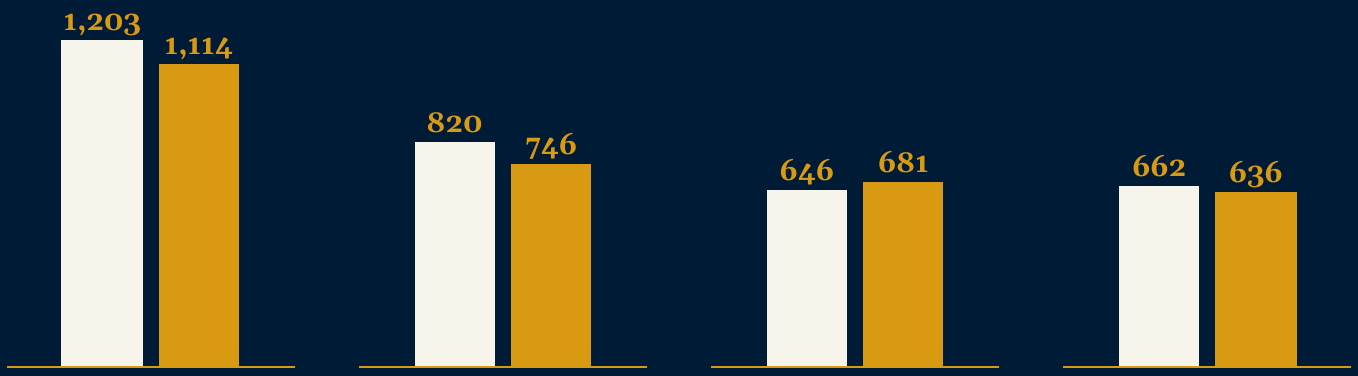

NOTE TO BUYERS

Condos have 5 to 6.5 months of supply, which gives buyers more room to negotiate. Single-family supply is 3.7 to 4.0 months.

NOTE TO SELLERS

Pricing from peak-season emotion is risky. Presentation and realistic strategy matter.

IN DEVELOPMENT

I-75 AT FRUITVILLE ROAD

FDOT is rebuilding Exit 210 as a diverging diamond and widening about 2 miles of I-75 to six lanes ($177.4M). Completion is expected in 2029. Plan around overnight lane and ramp closures.

RAYS BALLPARK DISTRICT

The Tampa Bay Rays plan a new fixed-roof ballpark, opening in 2029, as the centerpiece of a mixed-use district at Hillsborough College's Dale Mabry campus, across from Raymond James Stadium. Hillsborough County approved the funding agreement Aug. 28, 2026, and Tampa City Council took a further financing step on Oct. 15. More approvals are still ahead. The Rays play at Tropicana Field in St. Petersburg through 2028.

WELLEN PARK · THE 743-ACRE VOTE

On Oct 20, 2026, North Port's City Commission approved the Wellen Park Village HL master concept plan, with conditions, on about 743 acres south of US-41 and east of South River Road, near the Myakka River. It allows up to 1,875 homes plus 400,000 sq ft of retail and services and 100,000 sq ft of professional and medical office space. The vote was 4-1; the dissenting commissioner raised environmental concerns. What it means: Wellen Park's North Port side is set to keep growing, with more homes, shops and offices planned.

SOCIAL MINUTE

MANATEE AND SARASOTA FARMERS MARKETS

A QUICK GULF COAST RESET

Farmers markets are one of the easiest ways to understand a place. You see small businesses, local products, seasonal produce and the everyday rhythm of a community.

As the region has grown, so have the options for weekend markets, independent businesses and community events.

Pick one, go early and let the morning tell you something about the area.

SARASOTA FARMERS MARKET

Downtown Sarasota

A year-round city classic with produce, flowers, food vendors and strong “Saturday morning downtown” energy.

Best for: browsing, coffee and walkability.

BRADENTON PUBLIC MARKET

Old Main Street, Bradenton

A friendly downtown Manatee County market with local vendors and a strong community feel.

Best for: local flavor.

FARMERS MARKET AT LAKEWOOD RANCH

Waterside Place

A polished, lively market with lakefront energy, prepared foods, vendors and nearby shops.

Best for: new to the area weekends.

DOLLARS & CENTS

As of Oct 22, 2026, the national 30-year fixed average is 7.32%, up from 6.52% in June. On a $500,000 loan that is about $268 a month more in principal and interest. The headline rate is only one part of the deal: APR, points, loan type and adjustment risk also matter.

RATES WE SEE

Freddie Mac, Oct 22, 2026: 30-year fixed 7.32%, 15-year 6.68%. Principal and interest at 7.32%: $3,435 a month on $500,000; $2,748 on $400,000. Builders, including Pulte at Spencer Glen, advertise below-market and ARM financing; ask for the rate in writing, what it costs and how an ARM adjusts.

SELLING STRATEGY

Private sellers may face challenges competing with builders as they are better prepared and financially designed to handle various market conditions. Sellers need to use all the tools available to attract a wider audience of buyers. Consider offering closing cost assistance, rates buy downs and accommodating terms.

BUYING STRATEGY

Compare price, loan type, APR, points, closing costs, mortgage insurance, future adjustment risk, HOA/CDD fees and resale fit, not just the monthly teaser.

INSURANCE & STORMS

WEATHER, STORMS AND THE COST OF COVER

January highs are in the low 70s; June to September highs run near 91°F. About 60% of the roughly 49 inches of yearly rain falls June to September, mostly in afternoon storms. Hurricane season runs June 1 to Nov 30.

Nearly 1 in 4 flood insurance claims are paid on policies in low-to-moderate-risk zones (X and X500), per the City of Sarasota.
